

Ripple Kids™ at Tustin Tiller Days

October 5-7 2007

Ripple Kids™ had a booth and fashion show at Tustin Tiller Days, a local event featuring carnival rides, games and booths. The fashion show featured local Ripple Kids™ from the Tustin area and was sponsored by The Boardroom (clothing) and Chick's Sporting Goods (accessories) both of Tustin.

Kids featured in the fashion show were:

- Lucas – held bake sale to raise money for friend who lost everything in Katrina
- CJ – worked with Lucas on bake sale
- Audrey – see below
- Lauren – see below
- Brenna – book drive
- Olivia – book drive
- Isobel – book drive
- Sydney – book drive
- Caleigh – book drive
- Ethan – book drive
- Mason – raised $4800 for Crohn's and Colitis Foundation
- Megan – bake sale for children in Africa
- Clara – bake sale for Ava – girl with cancer
- Sabrina – see below

In addition to the fashion show, the booth featured Ripple Kids™ in Action and provided a venue for local Ripple Kids™ to publicize their current projects. Some of the featured kids and their projects are listed below:

Audrey, 7 – Color a Smile. She collected over 100 drawings colored by visitors to the booth. Artwork will be sent to Color a Smile where they'll distribute them to retirement homes and hospitals.

Lauren, 9 and her friends – launched their book collection drive in partnership with 'Reading by 9'. They hope to collect 500 books for local Orange County Schools.

Sabrina, 9 – sold jewelry to benefit her project of donating jewelry to hospitalized children.

Kayla 12, Connor 9 and their friends – sold jewelry to benefit a family who has 2 children 6 and under who both have a rare form of brain tumor.

Audrey in the booth with her donated artwork

Megan, Jaci and Kayla selling bracelets

The entire cast of the Ripple Kids™ Fashion Show

Lauren & Co. launch their book drive